Lane Community College is seeking an innovative and participatory Physical Therapist Assistant (PTA) faculty to provide hands-on and online instruction to PTA students. The successful candidate will join two full-time and five part-time team members to advance the program's mission and commitment to contemporary physical therapy workforce development at our main and distant campuses.

The Lane PTA program demonstrates excellent outcomes and is regionally and nationally recognized for its innovation and collaboration and partnerships. A successful candidate will provide leadership and implement best practices in teaching, assessment, technology-supported learning, and professionalism in the classroom. PTA faculty are highly visible and engaged in governance and other initiatives that support the college's mission in meeting the needs of our community.

Description:

Lane's main campus is in Eugene, a city known for its quality of life and for being the home of the University of Oregon. Eugene (population 148,000) and neighboring Springfield (population 56,000) comprise the second largest population center in the state.

Eugene and Springfield are nestled in the Willamette Valley between the Pacific Ocean and the Cascade Mountains, and some peaks in the Cascade Range can be seen from main campus. The area's scenic mountains, forests, rivers, lakes, and coastline offer many opportunities for outdoor adventures or for just sitting back and enjoying the view.

Minimum Education: AAS PTA degree, or higher Minimum Experience: 2 years experience as a Clinical Instructor, or experience in teaching, curriculum development, and administration in a PTA, DPT, or post-professional DPT program within the last seven (7) years

Salary Range for this position is $50,665 to $68,016 annually.
