A.T. Still University, Arizona School of Health Sciences located on the Mesa, Arizona campus invites applications for a faculty position to teach in the musculoskeletal track of our entry-level Doctor of Physical Therapy program and in the Orthopedic Physical Therapy Residency Program. Responsibilities include teaching, scholarship, academic and research advising, and service to the institution, community, and profession. Rank and salary are commensurate with experience and qualifications.

Qualifications: The ideal candidate will be a member of the APTA; demonstrate evidence of scholarly activity, excellence in teaching at the graduate level using web-assisted media, and clinical experience in orthopedics; and fit well into the current faculty group. Candidates must be eligible for and agree to secure physical therapy licensure in Arizona. Board certified orthopaedic clinical specialist (OCS), Fellow of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Manual Physical Therapy (FAAOMPT) and/or a Ph.D. or equivalent post-professional doctoral degree preferred with an emphasis in musculoskeletal rehabilitation or a related area.

Description:

Important Notes: ATSU is a fully-accredited graduate health professions institution. As the founding school of Osteopathic Medicine, ATSU is committed to the integration of body, mind and spirit. The physical therapy department offers doctoral degrees in physical therapy (entry level and post-professional), a neurological residency, an orthopedic residency, and multiple CEU courses annually. Additional information can be obtained from our website at <https://www.atstu.edu/physical-therapy-department>

Interested applicants should: Complete an ATSU employment application, which can be found at <http://www.atstu.edu/contact/jobs/display.asp> and send a cover letter, curriculum vita, names and contact information of three professional references to hraz@atsu.edu.
