Faculty, Physical Therapy (Erie, PA)

Gannon University's Morosky College of Health Professions and Sciences seeks two full-time, 12-month faculty members for the Doctor of Physical Therapy Program located at the Erie, Pennsylvania campus to begin on or before July 2018. Rank will be determined according to University standards at the time of employment. Current clinical and teaching expertise in one or more of the following areas is preferred: anatomy, musculoskeletal, cardiovascular and pulmonary systems, evidence based practice, and medically complex patient management. The successful candidate will teach courses, participate in course development, advise students, develop and maintain scholarly activities, and participate in service activities to support the University, community, and profession.

Qualified candidates will possess a post-professional doctoral degree (PhD, EdD, DHS, DSc, etc. or ABD) and/or a DPT degree with a clinical specialization. Additional requirements include greater than three years of clinical experience, contemporary expertise in at least one of the above physical therapy content areas, strong written and verbal communications skills, and eligibility for Pennsylvania state licensure. Qualified candidates will be expected to engage in scholarly activities in keeping the Boyer Model of Scholarship as is appropriate to their rank and application for tenure and/or promotion. Experience in teaching and higher education with a demonstrated commitment to research and service are preferred. Candidates must be able to support and promote the University's inclusive Mission, its Catholic identity, and its liberal arts and professional education traditions.

Description:

Gannon University is a Masters L institution committed to student-centered learning, with an emphasis on professional education integrated with liberal-learning student outcomes. Gannon is located in the heart of downtown Erie, Pennsylvania, along the shores of Lake Erie and close to businesses, organizations, and government agencies that are active partners in helping our students receive a hands-on education. Erie is a major tourist destination boasting 11 beaches, a wide variety of seasonal activities, professional sports teams, a professional symphony, multiple venues for live theater and music, and many other entertainment options. Pittsburgh, Cleveland, and Buffalo are within a two-hour drive.

Gannon University seeks excellence through inclusiveness and invites women and members of underrepresented groups to apply.

Application Procedure: Submit a cover letter, CV, evidence of effective teaching methods and productive scholarship in your respective field, and the contact information for three professional references to www.gannon.edu/employment.

Review of applications will begin immediately and these positions will remain open until filled.

The finalists will be required to submit an original transcript from the institution awarding his/her terminal degree.

References will not be contacted without prior notification to the applicants.

Gannon University is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
