Job Summary:

Our CAPTE-accredited Physical Therapy program in Goodyear, AZ is looking for a new team member to serve as the Goodyear Academic Program Director and Physical Therapy Department Chair. As Department Chair, this position provides effective leadership for both our Arizona and New Hampshire programs. Leading our faculty in maintaining all accreditation standards and continuous program assessment, this role is essential to our continued success.

Position Description:

Manage all aspects of hiring talent for both centers and continue development of skills through guidance and evaluations. Provide oversight of curriculum and develop the academic schedules. This role is also responsible for budget planning and the effective management of the operational budget for both location programs.

Experience and Qualifications:

Specific Responsibilities:

- Provide effective leadership and adherence to all accreditation standards including: faculty evaluation, professional development, financial management, and ongoing program assessment.
- Teach assigned courses within the program.
- Represent the Franklin Pierce Physical Therapy Program both internally and externally.
- Engage in scholarly work to enhance our programs and the University's mission.

Description:

Required Experience:

- An academic doctoral degree.
- A minimum of six (6) years' experience in higher education with at least three years as a faculty member in a physical therapy program.
- Must have, or be eligible for, licensure in the State of AZ.
- The ability to travel to other campuses and sites as required.
- Proven strength in strategic planning, leadership and management.

Preferred Skills:

- Innovative solutions to problems.
- Ability to work with changing priorities and succeed.
