Position Summary: Mayo Clinic's Program in Physical Therapy invites applications for a full-time faculty position beginning August 2018. Preferred candidates will have an academic doctoral degree (PhD or equivalent), teaching experience in an academic physical therapy program, clinical experience and a history of scholarly productivity. Teaching responsibilities will be dependent on qualifications. Rank and salary are commensurate with experience.

Finalists for the position will be invited to interview in the first quarter of 2018.

Responsibilities: The faculty position involves administrative, academic, service and scholarship responsibilities consistent with the mission and philosophy of the Program, School and Institution. Faculty are responsible for developing learning content, executing that content and evaluating student performance in the didactic curriculum. In addition to teaching responsibilities, faculty are expected to engage in research and other scholarly activities, clinical practice, and professional activities.

Qualifications: Effective 2012, a PhD or academic doctoral degree equivalent (EdD, DSc), or DPT with additional evidence of content expertise, is required.

Additional Qualifications: Membership in professional organization(s) with evidence of involvement at the local, state and/or national levels is preferred. A record of scholarly productivity (peer reviewed publications, peer reviewed presentations) is preferred. Prior teaching experience in a physical therapist education program is preferred. Licensure as a physical therapist with three years clinical experience and/or ABPTS specialty certification is preferred.

License or Certification: Licensure or eligibility for physical therapy licensure in Minnesota is preferred.

Benefit Eligible: Yes

Exemption Status: Exempt
