BRADLEY UNIVERSITY

THE DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL THERAPY AND HEALTH SCIENCE

The Department of Physical Therapy and Health Science at Bradley University invites qualified persons to apply for the position of Director of Clinical Education (DCE) available August 2013. This is a full-time, tenure track position. Candidates without an earned doctorate will be considered; however, tenure will not be considered until the doctorate degree has been completed.

Bradley University is a distinctive, medium-size, comprehensive private institution of higher learning located in Peoria, Illinois. The University is located on a 75-acre campus in Peoria, the largest metropolitan area in central Illinois. With 5,000 undergraduate and 1,000 graduate students, Bradley offers the opportunities and choices of a larger university (with over 90 programs in five colleges, plus a graduate school) and the quality, personal attention and challenges of a small private college. Bradley is rich in tradition and full of promise to become one of the nation's best comprehensive universities. For additional information about Bradley University and the Department of Physical Therapy visit www.bradley.edu and <http://www.bradley.edu/dpt>.

Description: The Department of Physical Therapy and Health Science is comprised of a dynamic and collaborative faculty actively engaged in a student-centered learning environment. Thus, candidates who demonstrate initiative and an ability to work collaboratively with students, faculty, staff, clinicians and others with diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. This position, which is primarily dedicated to the coordination of all aspects of clinical education, is a nine-month contract with additional summer contract. Candidates should have strong communication, problem-solving, and technological skills to ensure a quality learning experience for students. Other responsibilities include teaching, service, and scholarship consistent with the mission and philosophy of the department and the university.

Candidates must be licensed or eligible for PT license in Illinois, able to travel, and have a minimum of two years experience as a clinical instructor or center coordinator. A minimum of a master's degree is required. An earned doctorate is strongly preferred and candidates in the dissertation phase or doctoral studies will be considered. Go to www.bradley.edu/humanresources for full position description. To apply: Send a letter of application, Curriculum Vitae, and contact information for three professional references to: Dr. Dawn Hall, Search Committee Chair, Dept of PT and HS, Bradley University, 1501 W. Bradley Ave., 344 Olin Hall, Peoria, IL 61625. Review of applicants will begin immediately and will continue until position is filled.

Bradley University is an Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Employer. The administration, faculty and staff are committed to attracting qualified candidates from groups currently underrepresented on our campus.
