Associate Dean for Academic Affairs Position Available at Belmont

Belmont University's Gordon E. Inman College of Health Sciences and Nursing (CHS) seeks applications for a full-time, tenure-track faculty position at the rank of Associate Dean, at earliest possible start date.

Responsibilities include: assisting the Dean in overseeing administrative and operational needs of the college, serving as part of the CHS leadership team, assessing and facilitating efforts related to student affairs, assisting in faculty recruitment and development, teaching and promoting best practices in teaching, facilitating program and college assessment, representing the Dean and/or college at internal and external functions.

The ideal candidate will be doctorally prepared, possessing a PhD or terminal degree in a CHS discipline (nursing, occupational therapy, physical therapy, public health, social work), with a record of teaching excellence, scholarship and service and academic rank of Associate Professor with tenure or eligibility for tenure. Substantial experience in academic administration and accreditation are strongly preferred, and applicants who demonstrate interest and ability to work collaboratively in inter-professional course design and implementation are particularly desirable.

Description:
