

APTAEducation.org Classified Ads

Job Title: Instructor, Non-tenure Track

Organization: University Of Maryland, Baltimore
Contact Phone: 4107065216
Contact E-mail: dbethke@som.umaryland.edu
Date Ad Started: September 21, 2018

Contact Name: Donna Bethke
Contact Fax:
Contact Web Site: <http://pt.umaryland.edu/>
Expires: December 26, 2018

Instructor, non-tenure track

The University of Maryland Baltimore, School of Medicine, Department of Physical Therapy & Rehabilitation Science, Entry Level Doctor of Physical Therapy program (PTRS) is now accepting applications for a full-time, non-tenure track faculty position who will serve as the Assistant Director of Clinical Education. Responsibilities include securing and organizing clinical placements, assessing student learning during clinical internships, overseeing clinical site agreements and liability insurance, managing continuing education courses and events, didactic instruction within the PTRS DPT Program in areas of content expertise as appropriate; participation in curriculum evaluation and development of the DPT program; student advisement; student mentoring; engagement in scholarly activities, service, and participation in clinical activities as appropriate.

Qualifications: The ideal applicant will possess or be eligible for Maryland Physical Therapy licensure, a minimum of 3 years of experience as a licensed PT and a CI or CCCE for at least 2 years. The applicant will also demonstrate strong administrative and organizational skills, didactic and clinical expertise with ability to teach in both foundational and clinical science courses; evidence of scholarly work and service involvement; ability to work collaboratively and successfully within multicultural campus and community settings. American Physical Therapy Association Basic Credentialed Clinical Instruction Certification required. American Board of Physical Therapy Specialists specialty certification preferred.

Description: Rank and Salary: Instructor (Salary commensurate with experience and qualifications)

Applications: Accepted until position is filled. Submit a letter of application and curriculum vitae to the Chair of the Search Committee: Rachel Skolky, PT, DPT, GCS, University of Maryland School of Medicine, Department of Physical Therapy & Rehabilitation Science, 100 Penn Street, Baltimore, MD 21201-1082. Email: rskolky@som.umaryland.edu

Please include the Position number 03-329-52 in your letter of application.

About PTRS and UMOA:

We are located on the professional campus of the University of Maryland in Baltimore within the University of Maryland School of Medicine. The PTRS Department offers the Entry-level DPT, a PhD in Physical Rehabilitation Science, and a DPT/MPH Dual-Degree Program (<http://pt.umaryland.edu>).

About Baltimore:

Baltimore is known as "charm" city because of its beautiful downtown skyline and waterfront as well as many historic and vibrant neighborhoods. Culturally on a par with nearby cities of Washington DC, Philadelphia and New York, Baltimore has an international airport, is home to the Orioles and Ravens and has close access to a variety of beaches and two mountain ranges.

The University of Maryland, Baltimore is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action/ Employer. Minorities, women, individuals with disabilities, and protected veterans are encouraged to apply.