About USAHS:

The University of St. Augustine for Health Sciences \(USAHS\) is a graduate institution that emphasizes health and rehabilitative science education through innovative classroom and distance education, and offers degree programs in physical therapy, occupational therapy, nursing, education and health science, as well as continuing education programs. Founded in 1979, USAHS has campuses in San Marcos, California; Miami and St. Augustine, Florida; and Austin, Texas. USAHS is regionally accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges Senior College and University Commission.

What's it like to work for USAHS?

As an employee of the University of St. Augustine, you will add energy and excitement to the entry-level Doctor of Physical Therapy programs. "Clinical Excellence" is our focus, and every day is an opportunity for you to live the mission of developing professional health care practitioners through innovative, individualized and quality teaching methods. Together with the support of fellow faculty and clinical partners, you will contribute to USAHS's dedication to delivering excellence and innovation in education for our students.

San Marcos, California, Campus:

Our flagship campus is less than an hour north of San Diego and a short distance from Pacific Ocean beaches. Nestled in the North County foothills, San Marcos is known as an "Education Hub" with a high-quality medical community. The campus has state-of-the-art research labs and classrooms; a simulation lab; wellness center; and its own facility dog.

The Role:

Description:

The Assistant Physical Therapy Program Director is a full-time position with academic administrator as well as instructional responsibilities. Reporting to the Program Director, the Assistant Program Director will assist with implementing strategies to achieve goals; collecting and analyzing outcome data; preparing accreditation reports; as well as managing the contributing (part-time) faculty workforce. Must be willing to work a flexible schedule.

Candidate's Background Requirements:

The successful candidate will have a Doctoral degree (terminal degree) and at least five years' experience teaching in the field of physical therapy as an Associate Professor or Professor, with at least three years' experience in a leadership role in an accredited program. Online and blended learning teaching experience is preferred.

Eligibility for California State Licensure for Physical Therapy is required.

Key Indicators of Success:

This role could be right for you if you are passionate about teaching, scholarly activity, and service. Individuals who are dedicated to student-centered values and the pursuit of continued personal growth will thrive at the University of St. Augustine. As a member of the USAHS team, you will enjoy a competitive salary and attractive benefits, including medical, dental and life insurance; 401k plan; and much more.
