Description:

The School of Medicine at UC San Francisco seeks an outstanding individual to lead its Department of Physical Therapy and Rehabilitation Science. The successful candidate will have exceptional administrative and organizational skills and a national reputation as a leader in academic medicine in the areas of medical education, clinical care and research. The individual chosen will have major responsibilities in the overall direction of this distinguished department. Must be licensed as a Physical Therapist, or eligible to be licensed, in California. Preferred qualifications include but are not limited to: terminal doctoral degree, PhD, DSc, EdD or equivalent; experience in professional DPT and PhD training programs; understanding of current clinical practice; demonstrated research experience.

UC San Francisco seeks candidates whose experience, teaching, research, or community service has prepared them to contribute to our commitment to diversity and excellence. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age or protected veteran status.
