The faculty at the Trine University Doctor of Physical Therapy program are seeking a teacher/scholar to join our team. We are energetic, innovative, and dedicated to the success of our students and our profession.

Program Highlights

- Integrated clinical education courses ensure students are learning in the clinic every semester
- Robust interprofessional education component enables our students to learn alongside students in OTD, MD, PharmD, PA, and NP programs.
- Strongly supported by the two major health systems in Fort Wayne.
- Collaboration with Turnstone (<http://turnstone.org/>), a center for people with disabilities and a USOC Gold Level Paralympic Sport Club.
- First class facilities on the Parkview Hospital campus in Fort Wayne.
- Responsive, modest sized University with an action-oriented administration focused on providing quality education.

The Successful Candidate Will Have:

- A terminal academic degree
- A record of successful teaching and scholarship
- Eligibility for licensure as a physical therapist in Indiana

Salary: Competitive and commensurate with experience and qualifications.

This is a full-time, 12-month position with a preferred start date of May 2021. Application materials should include a focused letter of interest, a current curriculum vitae, and contact information for three professional references. All applications and nominations will be considered highly confidential. Questions can be addressed to Max Baumgartner, DPT Program Director at baumgartnerm@trine.edu.
