Simucase is seeking expert clinicians to assist in contributing clinical simulations and sharing/capturing patient videos, designed to enhance clinical competency. Acute care content is a plus. If your clinical simulations or videos are selected, you will receive an honorarium for your time and expertise.

Simucase combines the power of simulation-based learning along with a comprehensive patient video library. Our patented simulation technology for physical therapy allows users to observe, assess, diagnose, make recommendations, and provide intervention for virtual patients in a safe learning environment.
