Charleston Southern University (CSU) invites qualified applicants join our cadre of 10 full-time faculty in the Doctor of Physical Therapy program. The program recently earned candidacy status from CAPTE will enroll the first cohort of 48 students in the summer of 2022. Teaching will be the primary responsibility of the successful candidate with remaining effort divided across scholarship and service. Opportunities for clinical practice exist, if desired.

This appointment is available beginning in June 2022 and will remain open until filled. The program utilizes an eight semester, face-to-face instruction, curriculum model based on a systems approach utilizing proven effective learning techniques. More information regarding the program and department can be found at www.csuniv.edu/dpt.

Qualified candidates will exemplify Christian principles through evidence-based clinical care while serving their community and profession. The Department of Physical Therapy joins the Physician Assistant Program, Kinesiology, Public Health, and Athletic Training programs in the College of Health Sciences. The 15,000 square feet of dedicated physical therapy space includes 4 classrooms and labs, 7 study rooms, and a student lounge. Additionally, the Department has a state-of-the-art research facility that will satisfy a variety of scholarly agendas. The space includes a 10-channel Delsys EMG machine, GE Versana Linear Array Probe ultrasound, a 12-camera Qualisys Miquis Hybrid motion capture system capable of marker based and markerless tracking, 4 Bertec forceplates, and an instrumented 3DI Treadmetrix treadmill.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Doctoral degree; preference will be given to applicants with a terminal academic doctorate (PhD, ScD, EdD or DSc) from an accredited institution in a field related to physical therapy and consideration given to applicants with a DPT and advanced certification
- Must possess a current and valid South Carolina Physical Therapist license in good standing or be eligible to obtain South Carolina licensure
- Contemporary expertise in a specialty area of physical therapy based on accreditation guidelines
- A minimum of 3 years of clinical experience as a Physical Therapist

Located in historic Charleston, South Carolina, CSU has a 57-year history as a comprehensive institution offering a liberal arts curriculum to over 3,600 students and offers 60 majors and graduate programs in Education, Business, Criminal Justice, Organizational Management, Nursing, Christian Studies, Computer Science, and Health Sciences. The mission of the University is “promoting academic excellence in a Christian environment,” and the vision is to be a Christian University nationally recognized for integrating faith in learning, leading and serving. Charleston Southern is affiliated with the South Carolina Baptist Convention. For more information about the University, please visit www.charlestonsouthern.edu.

Expressions of interest and all applications will be treated in strict confidence. Application materials should include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, a brief teaching statement, and contact information of three references. Application materials should be submitted electronically on the Charleston Southern University Human Resources website:
