

ATI Physical Therapy Orthopedic and Sports Residencies and Upper Extremity Athlete Fellowship
Thomas Denninger
Thomas.denninger@atipt.com

Overview:

ATI Physical Therapy Orthopedic and Sports Residencies and Upper Extremity Athlete Fellowship has provided an PPT used for mentor training including a variety of important topics, e.g. qualities of a good mentor, mentor responsibilities, differences between the student versus resident and how that impacts the types of reflective questions a mentor might utilize, and how to apply the Dreyfus Model to residency mentoring. The examples of reflective questions for the mentor are particularly valuable for training novice and experienced mentors.